Legal Aid Awareness Camp with Counseling and Street Plays

The Legal Awareness Camp organized by Innovative Institute of Law was held on 21 January 2020. The camp aimed to raise legal awareness among the general public and provide valuable guidance through counseling sessions conducted by legal professionals. Additionally, street plays were performed to engage and educate attendees on various legal issues in an entertaining manner.

The camp commenced with an introduction to the importance of legal awareness in society, highlighting the benefits of understanding one's legal rights and responsibilities. This was followed by counseling sessions where participants had the opportunity to discuss their legal queries and concerns with experienced legal professionals. The counselors provided valuable insights and advice on a wide range of legal issues, including family law, property law, criminal law, and consumer rights.

Furthermore, street plays were performed to convey important legal messages in a creative and engaging way. The plays addressed common legal issues faced by individuals and emphasized the importance of seeking legal assistance when needed. The interactive nature of the street plays allowed attendees to grasp complex legal concepts in a simplified manner.

The camp successfully reached out to a diverse audience, including students, professionals, and members of the local community. Attendees expressed appreciation for the informative sessions and found the counseling sessions to be particularly beneficial. The street plays were also well-received, with many attendees finding their effectiveness in delivering key legal messages.

REPORT

Debate Competition on "Revocation of Article 370 in the Constitution of India: Pros & Cons"

The Innovative Institute of Law successfully organized a Debate competition on the topic "Revocation of Article 370 in the Constitution of India: Pros & Cons" on 28th August 2019 at the Seminar Hall. The competition aimed to provide a platform for students to showcase their debating skills and explore the various aspects of this significant constitutional change.

Debate is one of the academic activities that give students creative room to express what they feel. The length and breadth of knowledge that they gain through this is simply unparalleled. A debate competition was conducted for the students of LLB and BALLB course on the topic: Revocation of article 370 in the constitution of India: Pros & Cons. The participants, armed with statistics and data made their arguments more emphatic with their righteous facial expressions and voice modulation. The event commenced at 11:30 am with an opening address by the event coordinator, highlighting the importance of healthy debates in understanding complex legal issues. The competition saw enthusiastic participation from students, each eager to present their arguments on the topic.

The rules of the competition were explained to the participants, emphasizing the adherence to the specified time limit of 5 minutes per participant. The judges evaluated the presentations based on content, delivery, and overall presentation. Participants were encouraged to maintain decorum and respect differing opinions throughout the event.

The competition witnessed insightful arguments from the participants, who presented a wide range of perspectives on the revocation of Article 370. The speakers highlighted the historical background, legal implications, and socio-political impacts of the constitutional change, showcasing their in-depth understanding of the subject.

After all participants had presented their arguments, the judges deliberated and announced the winners of the competition. Exciting prizes were awarded to the winners, acknowledging their outstanding performance and contribution to the debate.

In conclusion, the debate competition on the revocation of Article 370 was a resounding success, providing students with a platform to engage in meaningful discussions and gain valuable insights into the topic. The event not only encouraged critical thinking and analytical skills but also promoted healthy discourse and mutual respect among participants. The Innovative Institute of Law looks forward to organizing more such events in the future to nurture the debating skills of its students and promote a culture of intellectual engagement.
