REPORT ON ANNUAL CODE OF CONDUCT

On September 4, 2020, the Annual Code of Conduct Orientation successfully transitioned to an online format, welcoming new students to our college and introducing them to the expectations for a respectful and productive academic experience. As part of the Orientation Programme, this webinar provided clarity on student rights and responsibilities, ensuring a solid foundation for their success.

The interactive session utilized a format and delved into key areas:

- Decoding the Code: A comprehensive breakdown of the college's Code of Conduct, including expectations surrounding academic integrity, respectful interactions, dress code regulations, and responsible utilization of college resources.
- Empowering Students: A clear articulation of student rights and responsibilities as outlined by the Code of Conduct to promote informed decision-making.
- Navigating Challenges: A detailed explanation of available resources and procedures for addressing concerns or conflicts that may arise during their academic journey.

Outcomes and Impact:

Feedback from participants was positive. Students emerged with a clear understanding of their role within the college community, feeling confident to navigate potential issues effectively. The presence of family members fostered a collaborative understanding of shared accountability in upholding the college's standards.

Moving Forward:

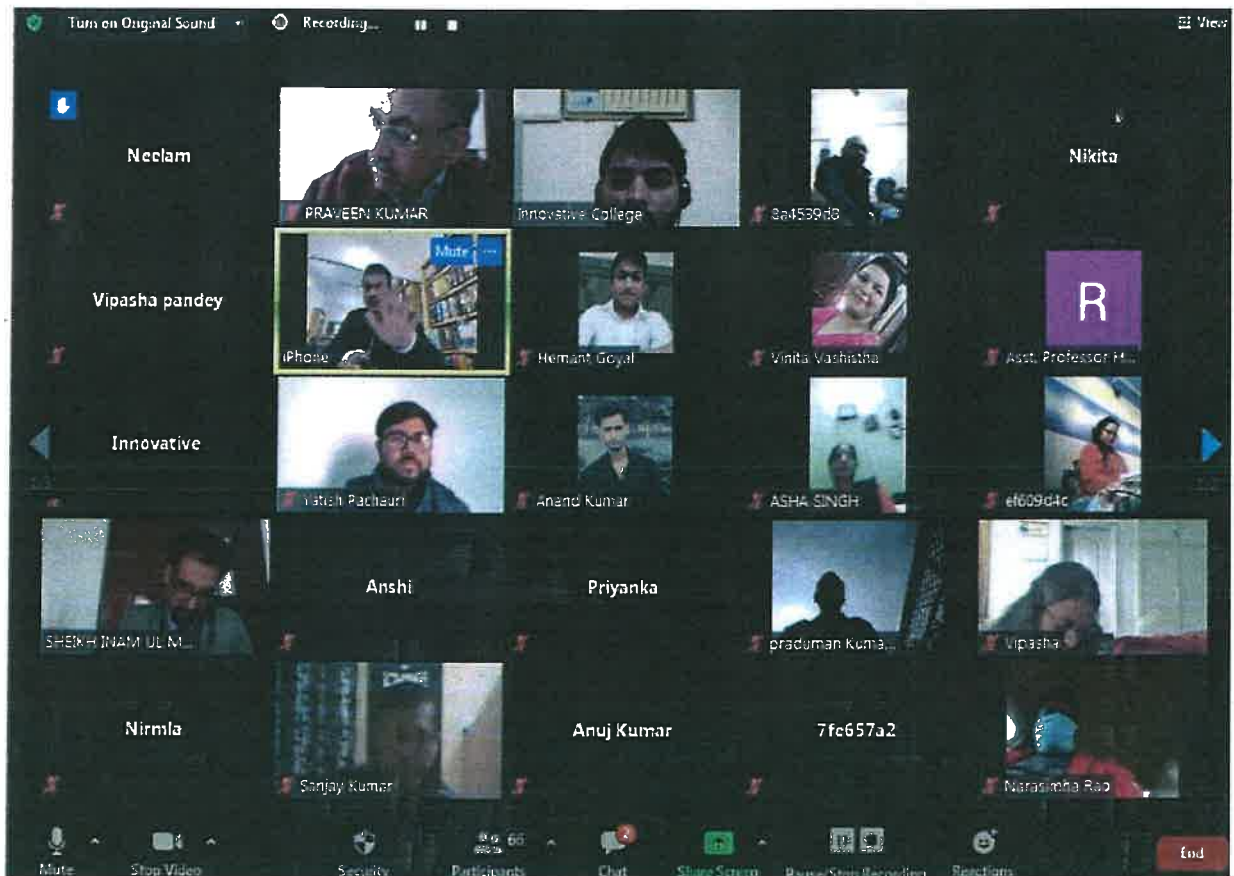

To ensure continued access to this information, a digital copy of the Code of Conduct will be distributed to all new students. Additionally, the session materials will be readily available on the college website for future reference. We encourage students to familiarize themselves with the Code of Conduct and utilize the available resources to contribute to a thriving academic environment.

REPORT ON ANNUAL CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

The annual Code of Conduct Orientation Session was held on 18th Sept 2023 at 12 P.M in seminar hall as part of the Orientation Programme for new students. The session aimed to introduce incoming students and their parents/guardians to the college's Code of Conduct, fostering a positive and inclusive learning environment.

Attendance

All new students attended the session. Additionally parents/guardians were present.

Programme Highlights

The session followed a [Presentation/Interactive Workshop] format and covered the following key areas:

- Overview of the Code of Conduct: A detailed explanation of the college's Code of Conduct policies, including expectations for academic integrity, respectful behaviour, dress code, and proper use of college facilities.
- Student Rights and Responsibilities: A clear outline of students' rights and responsibilities as outlined by the Code of Conduct.
- Grievance Redressal Procedures: Information on available resources and proper procedures to address any concerns or conflicts that may arise during their academic journey.
- Q&A Session: A dedicated time for students and parents/guardians to ask questions and gain clarification on specific aspects of the Code of Conduct.

Outcomes

The session received positive feedback from the attendees. Students expressed a clear understanding of their rights and responsibilities within the college community. Additionally, they felt equipped to navigate potential issues effectively through the outlined grievance redressal procedures. The presence of parents/guardians fostered a sense of shared responsibility in upholding the college's standards.

A copy of the Code of Conduct will be distributed to all new students electronically. Additionally, the presentation materials will be available on the college website for future reference. We encourage students to familiarize themselves with the Code of Conduct and utilize the available resources to ensure a smooth and successful academic journey.
