REPORT

The Innovative Institute of Law successfully organized a webinar on "Challenges and Concerns in Citizenship Amendment Act 2019" on 13-06-2021. The webinar aimed to provide insights into the various aspects of the Citizenship Amendment Act 2019 and its implications.

The webinar commenced at 12:00 pm and was attended by students and faculty members of the institute. The event began with a welcome address by Ms. Sheetal Sharma, Faculty, Innovative Institute of Law.

The webinar featured distinguished speakers including Adv. Saloni Bahl, who discussed the legal aspects of the Citizenship Amendment Act 2019. Mr. Abhilash Arun Sapre, who highlighted the social implications, argued that social movements have struggled to weave difference into the notion of equality that informs the abstract notion of citizenship. They suggested that the universalism of citizenship can be made effective by taking into account the specific needs of people belonging to groups that are disadvantaged by the generalised application of common or uniform frameworks/standards of citizenship. Their constant theme was that the Constitution recognises differentiated citizenship so that members of specific ethnic, linguistic, racial and religious groups are incorporated into citizenship not only as individuals but also through their groups so their rights depend upon their group membership.

The speakers provided valuable insights and perspectives on the topic, which led to an engaging discussion among the participants. The webinar concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Akhilesh Kumar Pandey, HOD, Innovative Institute of Law, who thanked the speakers and participants for their active participation.

Overall, the webinar was a great success and provided a platform for meaningful discussions on the challenges and concerns surrounding the Citizenship Amendment Act 2019.
